

WidePoint Names Mary Ann Solana Executive Director of Sales and Marketing Operations

Company Confirms Second Quarter Revenue Guidance of Over $9.0 Million

Monday, July 28, 2008

WASHINGTON, D.C., -- WidePoint Corporation (AMEX: WYY), a leading provider of advanced information technology, identity assurance and mobile telecom expense management services, today announced that defense and technology industry veteran Mary Ann Solana has been named Executive Director of Sales and Marketing Operations.

In this new position, Solana will be responsible for developing and directing WidePoint's business development operations, business intelligence and customer relationship management systems.

"We are delighted to have Mary Ann on WidePoint's management team," said WidePoint CEO Steve Komar. "Her 25 years of experience directing business development operations coupled with her exceptional track record of creating and accelerating revenue growth makes her the ideal candidate to manage WidePoint's sales, marketing and operational structures. She is joining us at an exciting time, as our targeted initiatives within assured identity management and mobile telecom management continue to demonstrate strong growth in both current revenues and in additional new opportunities. We recently met our second quarter guidance of $9 million to $10 million in revenue and believe Mary Ann will enable us to continue this strong top-line momentum. She will report to Ron Oxley, our recently appointed Executive Vice President of Sales, Marketing and Business Development."

Prior to joining WidePoint, Solana was Sector Director of Business Development for Northrop Grumman Corporation, a $32 billion global defense and technology company, providing systems, products and solutions in information and services, electronics, aerospace and shipbuilding. During her successful 25-year career with the company, Solana's accomplishments included the following:

- Spearheaded the successful business development operations transition and consolidation of nine acquire IT companies creating a single unit generating revenue in excess of $5 billion;
- Lead the IT Sector in the formal customization and implementation of a business acquisition process;
- Created extensive business development intelligence in market, customer, and opportunity analyses;
- Managed operations of a geographically dispersed Operations Center, which included multiple programs and marketing activities for NASA and the U.S. Air Force in Texas, Colorado and Alabama, and exceeded all fiscal financial goals;
- Provided business management and oversight for a $60 million NASA Space Station program including negotiations and start-up for a 9-year contract; and

- Worked with the Air Force to resolve customer satisfaction issues, resulting in the successful award of a $55 million San Antonio technical services contract.

Solana's appointment to the company's management team is effective immediately.
