

WidePoint Appoints Morton Taubman to Board of Directors

Tuesday, March 14, 2006

Fairfax, Va. -- WidePoint Corporation (OTC Bulletin Board: WDPT) announced today that it has appointed Morton S. Taubman to its board of directors. He will also head the audit committee of the board.

Prior to forming his own law firm specializing in corporate law, government contracting and international relations, Taubman was the senior vice president and general counsel to DIGICON Corporation, an IT and telecommunications company. Before joining DIGICON, he was a senior and executive partner at Ginsburg, Feldman and Bress, LLP an established Washington, D.C. firm that provided expertise in tax, telecommunications, litigation, federal regulatory issues, capital reformation, government contracting and international issues. Before that, he was a founding partner at a number of law firms, was the partner-in-charge of the Washington D.C. office of Laventhol & Harworth, a partner at Coopers & Lybrand and a special agent with the U.S. Treasury Department.

During his extensive career in the Washington, D.C. area, Taubman has dealt with national and international business situations, including assisting the state of Israel develop its laws enabling it to exploit its military proprietary hardware and software for commercial use; assisting the People's Republic of China in developing its corporate law infrastructure necessary to attract Western technology into its country for manufacturing; and assisting many domestic corporations in all areas of financial, governmental and legal matters. Taubman currently represents a number of clients in the government contracting business in the Washington D.C. marketplace. He assists his clients in developing their corporate policies and relationships, which are necessary to enhance their contractual relationship with the U.S. federal government.

The author of many accounting and legal papers, Taubman has been an adjunct law professor for more than 15 years at Georgetown University and George Washington University. He also serves as special corporate counsel to Global Options Group, Inc. and Global Options, Inc., a company focusing on U.S. federal security services and as general counsel to Interior Systems, Inc. d/b/a ISI Professional Services, a United States federal contractor. He holds a bachelor's degree in accounting from the University of Baltimore, a J.D. in Law from the University of Baltimore Law School and a Master of Law degree from Georgetown.

Steve Komar, CEO of WidePoint, said, "Mort has been solving complex legal and accounting issues for clients for more than 30 years. His experience working with companies in the government contracting business and his relationships in the professional and federal sector marketplaces will be invaluable to us as we expand both our federal base of business and respond to the increased regulatory compliance demanded by Sarbanes-Oxley. We look forward to having him help guide WidePoint toward continued and future success."

About WidePoint

WidePoint is a technology-based provider of products and services to both the government sector and commercial markets. WidePoint presently specializes in providing systems engineering and information technology services as well as PKI eAuthentication and credentialing services. WidePoint's wholly owned subsidiary, Operational Research Consultants, Inc. (ORC) is at the forefront of implementing public key infrastructure eAuthentication and credentialing services. The company's identity management and eAuthentication services have received three major U.S. federal government certifications. WidePoint's profile of customers encompasses U.S. federal government agencies such as the Department of Defense, the Department of Homeland Security, the U.S. Treasury Department and the Department of Justice as well as major transnational corporations such as Boeing Aerospace and Northrup Grumman and several major pharmaceutical companies.

An investment profile about WidePoint may be found at www.hawkassociates.com/wdptprofile.aspx

For investor relations information regarding WidePoint, contact Frank Hawkins or Julie Marshall, Hawk Associates, at (305) 451-1888, e-mail:info@hawkassociates.com. An online investor relations kit including copies of WidePoint press releases, current price quotes, stock charts and other valuable information for investors may be found at www.hawkassociates.com and www.americanmicrocaps.com.

Safe-Harbor Statement Under the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995: This press release may contain forward-looking information within the meaning of Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the Exchange Act), including all statements that are not statements of historical fact regarding the intent, belief or current expectations of the company, its directors or its officers with respect to, among other things: (i) the company's financing plans; (ii) trends affecting the company's financial condition or results of operations; (iii) the company's growth strategy and operating strategy; and (iv) the declaration and payment of dividends. The words "may," "would," "will," "expect," "estimate," "anticipate," "believe," "intend" and similar expressions and variations thereof are intended to identify forward-looking statements. Investors are cautioned that any such forward-looking statements are not guarantees of future performance and involve risks and uncertainties, many of which are beyond the company's ability to control, and that actual results may differ materially from those projected in the forward-looking statements as a result of various factors.