WidePoint's iSYS Mobile TEM Program at CBP Garners GSA Award

CBP's Rebel McFetridge Recognized by GSA Interagency Management Council

WASHINGTON, June 24, 2010 /PRNewswire-FirstCall/ -- WidePoint Corporation (NYSE Amex: WYY), a specialist in wireless mobility management and cybersecurity solutions, today announced that its wholly owned subsidiary iSYS, LLC, would like to congratulate Rebel McFetridge, Wireless Program Manager for U.S. Customs Border and Protection (CBP), for her 2010 General Services Administration (GSA) Interagency Management Council (IMC) Award for Technical Excellence for her role in implementing the iSYS Telecom Expense Management (TEM) program at CBP. Ms. McFetridge was recognized at the GSA Network Services Conference yesterday in Orlando, Florida.

“Rebel truly deserves this award as she pioneered TEM programs within the federal government,” said Jin Kang, Founder and President of iSYS, LLC. “As the Wireless Program Manager for CBP, she is responsible for the TEM program and was instrumental in the development of the strategy, statement of work creation, vendor proposal evaluation, implementation and execution of the program. iSYS congratulates Rebel on her award and looks forward to continuing our close collaboration in support of CBP’s important mission.”

Under the GSA’s Federal Strategic Sourcing Initiative (FSSI) TEM contract, CBP implemented a TEM program supported by iSYS’ proprietary Web-based TEM solution, Intelligent Telecommunications Management System[®]. The TEM program establishes standardized procurement and management procedures for wireless assets.
