WidePoint Subsidiary iSYS Announces Contract Award to Provide Telecom Expense Management Services to The Ohio State University Department of Athletics

McLean, Virginia – September 13, 2012 – WidePoint Corporation (NYSE Mkt: WYY), a leading provider of cloud-based telecommunications life-cycle and trusted cybersecurity management, announced today that its wholly owned subsidiary, iSYS, LLC (“iSYS”), has been awarded a contract to provide mobile Telecom Expense Management (TEM) services to The Ohio State University Department of Athletics.

iSYS is providing a customized telecom expense management solution to The Ohio State University to enable the Department of Athletics to maximize its wireless telecom budget and resources. The scope of services encompasses asset and service management support; auditing, dispute and claim recovery; rate plan management; technical support and administration; management reporting; ordering and procurement. “Our solution supports all OSU athletic teams, including football, basketball and baseball, with mobile device expense management and optimization services,” said Todd McMillen, iSYS Vice President of Client Services. “Also, our proprietary TEM system has been customized to assist OSU Athletics.”

“We are excited to support The Ohio State University and provide our innovative TEM solution to this nationally recognized and award-winning athletic department,” said Jin Kang, President of iSYS. “We look forward to supporting the Buckeyes, enabling the University’s resources to be optimized in support of OSU’s teams and student athletes.”

“We are pleased that our efforts to expand our services into the State and Local marketplace continue to result in brand-name wins like the Ohio State Buckeyes. This contract represents a superb example of our long-term strategy to transfer our outstanding Federal expertise and proprietary services to deliver solutions to these market segments,” said Steve Komar, WidePoint CEO & Chairman. “With universities, colleges and school districts around the country facing budget challenges, we are confident that our solutions can provide substantial cost savings and expense reductions to these and other educational institutions.”
