

WidePoint Engages Liolios to Lead Expanded Investor Relations and Strategic Communications Program

McLean, VA – August 30, 2018 – WidePoint Corporation (NYSE American: WYY), provider of Trusted Mobility Management (TM2) specializing in Telecommunications Lifecycle Management, Identity Management and Bill Presentment & Analytics solutions, has engaged Liolios to lead an expanded investor relations and strategic communications program.

Liolios is a leading strategic financial communications firm focused on public companies across a broad range of industries. Founded in 1999, the firm combines deep capital markets expertise gained from years of Wall Street experience with extensive investor relations and strategic consulting capabilities.

The WidePoint management team will work closely with Liolios to develop and deploy a comprehensive capital markets strategy designed to enhance the company's visibility in the investment community. Activities will include: strategic messaging and corporate positioning; strategic consulting; introductions to new investors and key influencers across the financial community, and other general advisory services. Liolios will also assist in scheduling conferences, road shows and procuring invitations to select financial conferences for WidePoint management.

"WidePoint is excited to engage with Liolios to expand our investor relations and strategic communications initiatives," said Jin Kang, Chief Executive Officer and President, WidePoint Corporation. "Liolios has the experience and track record of assisting emerging growth companies like WidePoint to increase awareness and presence in the investment community. WidePoint is at an inflection point for generating interest and looks forward to working with Liolios to share our success story, technology solutions and future vision for how WidePoint contributes value to the growing mobile enterprise landscape."
